

The Growth Manager is at the crossing point of advertising and item advancement and is centered around the client. It further involves client securing, initiation, maintenance, and upsell. Obligations include:

- Reporting to the CEO or Management Department
- Attract and Engage Customers
- Overseeing of Key Accounts
- Create, oversee and experiment with new client acquisition campaigns
- Conceive and execute on a wide-scope of substance campaigns within the community
- Drive instruction and commitment